This submission form is intended to help you make a submission on the Draft West Coast Regional Public Transport Plan 2023. Where relevant, please give reasons for your answers. If more room for answers is required, attach answers on a separate piece of paper. Please return your submission by 5.00pm, Friday 29 September 2023.

1. Do you think the policies and actions for delivering public transport on the West Coast are appropriate given the characteristics of the region? Are there any other policies and actions you would suggest including?

Accessibility to transport is an important determinant of health, well-being and safety. The lack of access to an effective public transport system on the West Coast is often highlighted as a barrier to social and economic participation.

Action - a public transport system is highlighted now as a necessity not 2023

2. Do you think that there are other services that should be available other than those identified within this RPTP? If yes, please detail what these are and justification for their inclusion.

A Regional Public Transport System should be given high priority, enables access to services, education, employment opportunities, health, sport and social services.

How does WRC supply services to our aging populations?

3. Are there any other comments you wish to make on this draft RPTP?

West Coast has a high deprivation index, an appropriate public transport system could help address this.

For a number of years WCRC have ignored studies carried out across the West Coast that have identified transport issues and transport barriers.

WCRC have a responsibility to highlight Public transport as an immediate concern for the West coast.

NOTE:

The provision of public transport services is dependent on district and regional rates as well as subsidies from the NZ Transport Agency. The Policies and Actions in this draft RPTP 2023 have been included within the relevant local authority Long Term and Annual Plan processes, as well as detailed in the draft Regional Land Transport Plan 2021 - 31. Increases to the funding proposed will also need to be addressed through these planning processes. Current proposed funding can be viewed in the draft Regional Land Transport Plan 2021 - 31.
