Submission:

I support the applications referenced within this document and do not wish to be heard in support of this submission at any hearing that may be held.

I have served a copy of my / our submission on the Applicant as per s96(6)(b) of the Resource Management Act 1991.

Reasons for Submission

By all accounts, the applicant is a competent, highly responsible operator who will manage their operation on such principles. I also believe that the RMA, if correctly and appropriately applied will ensure that the all-important principle of environmental sustainability will be achieved whilst allowing the Coast to benefit from the economic, social and other benefits the development brings.

Decision sought:

I seek the following decision from the Consent Authorities:

That the application be granted in its entirety.
